Step 1, Registration – This step allows us to send you your password and login details for the online application process.

Step 2, Pre APEL – This stage allows you to input some general information about you and your experience so that we can make a decision regarding your eligibility to proceed with a full application.

This saves you time and money because this stage is free of charge and we may advise that you need more experience before making a full application.

Step 3, Full APEL – Pay assessment fee on submission of the full APEL application. Once this part of the process is complete we require full payment of the registration fee.

This part of the process requires:

Step 5, Review of the Certification file and Certification Decision – A full and comprehensive review of all the information provided during the application process is performed to determine whether all of the requirements for certification have been met. The outcome of this review is either certification, a request to provide additional information or in some circumstances a rejection.

Step 6, Maintenance of certification – There are specific requirements that you must meet to ensure your certification continues, see section 4 of this document.

Step 7, Recertification – Every three years' certification is renewed. The specific requirements for this are given in Section 5 of this document.

8 Complaints about CIBSE Certification

8.1 Complaints and Appeals

CIBSE Certification operates a disputes and complaints procedure (CCP 101) that any potential or current registrant may invoke at any time e.g. should they feel that:

- They have received poor service
- They have been refused entry to a scheme unfairly
- They have been excluded for the scheme unfairly

9 QA Audits

The government requires that AC inspection reports provided to clients must be audited to ensure their quality.

9.1 Desk audit

If selected for audit you will be asked to provide all data for one, or several, of your AC inspection reports in much the same way that you did for your test reports. The CIBSE Certification Quality Assurance team will then review the data provided against the AC inspection report lodged to ensure that it is robust, and the way the data has been entered and the general methodology used is correct.

A report for all such reviews will be issued to the AC Inspector.
